

Free Arts Workshops - Be a Part of History!

MediaRites presents arts workshops about the history of our Southeast Asian refugee elders.

We invite youth aged 12 - 18 to come create collage art, paintings, drawings, and memory boxes.

The artwork will be inspired by recently recorded interviews with Southeast Asian elders and will focus on the struggles and successes of the Southeast Asian community in Portland.

FREE ARTS CAMP AT THE ASIAN FAMILY CENTER

DATES: Monday, July 11th - Friday, July 15th

TIME: 9am - 12pm

A free community festival open to all will showcase the artwork created in the workshops. The event will take place on August 6th at IRCO, the Immigrant and Refugee Community Organization. There will be music, food, art activities, and, of course, youth art displayed!

Workshops at:

Asian Family Center
4424 NE Glisan St.
Portland, OR 97213

Final Event at:

IRCO
10301 NE Glisan St.
Portland, OR 97220

To find out more and register, please email PingKhaw@cs.com or phone (503) 231-2857.

